

CITY OF SAN DIEGO
OFFICE OF COUNCIL PRESIDENT PRO TEM ANTHONY YOUNG

WEEKLY UPDATE JANUARY 22, 2007

City Council Actions

Today the Council unanimously approved my motion to apply to the State for a grant to develop a “Preferred Route to School Plan” for eight elementary schools in the Encanto, Skyline-Paradise Hills and other 4th District communities. This initial group of schools was selected based upon the number of accidents to pedestrians and bicyclists within a half mile radius of the schools. The grant will provide $227,000 to plan safe routes for Kennedy, Holly Drive Leadership Academy, Chavez, Baker, Logan, Kimbrough, Emerson/Bandini and Knox Elementary.

The Council also voted today to add Council member Toni Atkins to the newly established Audit Committee which I serve as Vice Chairman.

This completes the (3) member committee that is so critical to bringing this city out of the fiscal crisis that has plagued this city for the past few years.

You May Want To Know...

The community expressed outrage and sadness on December 6, 2006 when Brandon Hammond and Marcelles McElvaine, both 19 years old, were murdered in the 7600 block of Deep Dell Court.

Today, I convened a press conference with the Chief of Police and the Mayors office to announce that two suspects in their murder have been arrested and will be prosecuted by the District Attorney.

I also announced that a suspect was arrested on Monday for the August 2006 murder of 17 year-old Michael Daniels of Chollas View.

I commend and thank the San Diego Police Department's Team 3 Detectives and all those who assisted them, for their outstanding efforts in identifying and arresting three suspects in these murders.

I want this message to go out again and again. We will not tolerate anyone coming into our communities and murdering our youth! They will be caught and they will be prosecuted!

The Local Initiatives Support Corporation (LISC) is now accepting applications for the 2007 MetLife Foundation Community-Police Partnership Awards. One of the most important developments to honor black history in San Diego is set to open Thursday, January 23, in downtown's East Village. Lillian Place, an affordable housing project strongly supported by the late Councilman Charles Lewis, will not only provide 74 units of affordable housing for individuals and families, it's also a tribute to the African-American pioneers who helped make San Diego the great city it is today. This wonderful residential complex is named after Lillian Grant, a black businesswoman who owned downtown properties in the 1940s and 1950s. Please join me at 11:30 a.m. for the grand opening of Lillian's Place located at 1401 J Street.

Roosevelt Williams III an Intern in my office was recently recognized by AmeriCorps for his outstanding commitment to our communities and our country for successfully completing his service with Americorp. Roosevelt was honored with a Certificate of National Service. I commend, thank, and congratulate him on this exemplary achievement.
